Charging Party

v.

City of Chicago, Chicago Fire Department
Office of the Fire Commissioner
10 West 35th Street, 14th Floor
Chicago, IL 60616

Respondent

DETERMINATION

Under the authority vested in me by the Procedural Regulations of the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC), I issue the following determination on the merits of the subject charges filed under Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended (Title VII).

The Respondent is an employer within the meaning of Title VII, and all requirements for coverage have been met.

Charging Party alleges that she was discriminated against because of her race, Black, in that she was disciplined and suspended, and that she was discriminated against because of her sex, female, in that she was subjected to sexual harassment, in violation of Title VII. Charging Party also alleges that she was retaliated against for filing a charge of race discrimination and for complaining of and opposing sexual harassment in that she was subjected to continued harassment, intimidation, threats, and adverse terms and conditions of employment, including but not limited to, vacation being denied, a merit increase being delayed, being disciplined, having her seniority reduced, being a target for layoff, and being forced to take medical leave, in violation of Title VII.

I have determined that the evidence obtained in the investigation establishes reasonable cause to believe that Respondent discriminated against the Charging Party because of her sex, female, by subjecting her to sexual harassment, in violation of Title VII.

CHARGE OF DISCRIMINATION – Deidre Green

I. A. ISSUE/BASIS

1. Quid pro quo sexual harassment and impermissible retaliation following sexual harassment

B. PRIMA FACIE ALLEGATIONS

1. I began my employment with Respondent in or around 1989.
2. My current position is Field Payroll Auditor.
3. Beginning in July of 2008, Fire Commissioner John Brooks began sexually harassing me both in and out of the office, including but not limited to making suggestive telephone calls, inquiring into my personal relationships, indicating that he desired me in a sexual manner and wanting to see my breasts. I found the conduct offensive and rejected the sexual suggestions and advances of Commissioner Brooks, my ultimate supervisor, and I complained to him that I felt his actions were inappropriate.
4. Because of my complaints to Brooks and rejection of Brooks' advances, Brooks began a pattern of behavior meant to intimidate, threaten and retaliate against me, including but not limited to telling me that he had saved my job in October of 2008 but that he could fire me and that I would have to sue the fire department to get my job back.
5. In retaliation for my complaints to Brooks and rejection of Brooks' sexual suggestions and advances, respondent adversely affected and continues to affect the terms and conditions of my employment, in a manner which includes but is not limited to the respondent denying my vacation time, threatening that my merit increase would be withheld, delaying payment of said increase, unjustifiable discipline, reducing my seniority due to said discipline, denying legitimate vacation requests, unjustifiably subjecting me to disparate and harassing work conditions while other similarly situated employees are not subjected to said conditions, targeting me for layoff as of June 17, 2009 and various other acts of retaliation resulting in my being forced to take a medical leave in early 2010.
6. My complaints of the aforementioned sexual harassment and retaliation to the City of Chicago Office of Compliance, upon information and belief, were quashed by Compliance Executive Director, Anthony Boswell.
7. Said sexual harassment and retaliatory misconduct is in violation of Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended.

Determination

EEOC Charge Numbers: 440-2009-03400, 440-2009-07053, and 440-2010-02912

I have also determined that Respondent retaliated against the Charging Party for filing a charge of race discrimination and for complaining of and opposing sexual harassment, by subjecting her to continued harassment, intimidation, threats, and adverse terms and conditions of employment, including but not limited to, denying her a merit increase, disciplining her, reducing her seniority targeting her for layoff, and forcing her to take medical leave, in violation of Title VII.

I have further determined that the evidence obtained in the investigation establishes reasonable cause to believe that Respondent discriminated against a class of individuals, including the Charging Party, because of their race, Black, and in retaliation for engaging in protected activity by subjecting them to discipline, suspension, and/or discharge, in violation of Title VII.

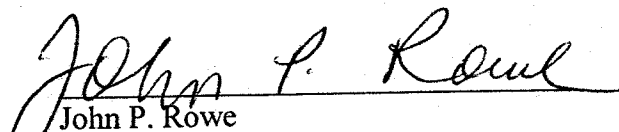

This determination is final. When the Commission finds that a violation has occurred, it attempts to eliminate unlawful practices by informal methods of conciliation. Therefore, I invite the parties to join with the Commission in reaching a just resolution of this matter. Disclosure of information obtained by the Commission during the conciliation process will be made only in accordance with the Commission's Procedural Regulations (29 C.F.R. Part 1601.26).

If the Respondent wishes to accept this invitation to participate in conciliation efforts, it may do so at this time by proposing terms for a conciliation agreement; that proposal should be provided to the Commission representative within 14 days of the date of this determination. The remedies for violations of the statutes we enforce are designed to make the identified victims whole and to provide corrective and preventive relief. These remedies may include, as appropriate, an agreement by the Respondent not to engage in unlawful employment practices, placement of identified victims in positions they would have held but for discriminatory actions, back pay, restoration of lost benefits, injunctive relief, compensatory and/or punitive damages, and notice to employees of the violation and the resolution of the claim.

Should the Respondent have further questions regarding the conciliation process or the conciliation terms it would like to propose, we encourage it to contact the assigned Commission representative. Should there be no response from the Respondent in 14 days, we may conclude that further conciliation efforts would be futile or nonproductive.

Charge Nos. 440-2009-03400, 440-2009-07053 & 440-2010-02912

Dear Ms. Green:

It has been determined that the Department of Justice will not file suit on the above-referenced charge of discrimination that was referred to us by the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC). This should not be taken to mean that the Department of Justice has made a judgment as to whether or not your charge is meritorious.

You are hereby notified that conciliation in this matter was unsuccessful by the EEOC. You are further notified that you have the right to institute a civil action under Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended, 42 U.S.C. Section 2000e et seq., against the above-named respondent. If you choose to commence a civil action, such suit must be filed in the appropriate court within 90 days of your receipt of this Notice.

We are returning the files in this matter to EEOC's Chicago District Office. If you or your attorney have any questions concerning this matter or wish to inspect the investigative file, please feel free to address your inquiry to: John P. Rowe, Director, EEOC, 500 W. Madison St., Ste. 2000, Chicago, IL 60661.

Sincerely,

Jocelyn Samuels
