Hi Mike,

I don't have any issue with the timeliness of the response letter. We've had a few of conversations regarding the situation with 2011-12 negotiations, and I feel we are on the same page. I also know that the budget process is picking up, and that it is going to consume a considerable amount of your time. However, if you think it would be productive to meet prior to the issue of the arbitration award, let me know and I'll be happy to set something up.

Have a good weekend,
Ray

Ray:

I hope we don't have a problem with timeliness on the letter I just sent. Since we do work as cooperatively as possible together.
Thanks
